The Eye.

DR. J. P. SPEER, 139 Penn st., Pittsburg, continues to devote special attention, as he has done for the last twenty-five years, to the diseases, deformities and defects of this important organ.

In reply to frequent inquiries of correspondents, it may be stated that, amongst the CURABLE diseases of the eye are Cataract, where the pupil is of a milky color, instead of black, as in the healthy eye; Opthalmia, Pterygium, Opacities and Films from recent inflammation, Nervous Sensibility of the Optic Nerves, Strabismus, or Crooked Eyes, Inversion of the Eyelids, Fistula, Lachrymalis.

Amongst the incurable are Amaurosis, or complete paralysis of the optic nerve, where no light is visible; Opacities and Films from chronic inflammation; all cases in which the ball of the eye is lessened or altered in form by disease or injuries.

Defective Vision, old age or short sightedness, may generally be relieved or cured by properly adjusted glasses.

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862 is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, THE TRIBUNE has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith, and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle, which, we trust to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

TERMS.

The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of THE TRIBUNE. Our new terms are:

EXPERIENCE IN CAPTIVITY.

How Our Captured Soldiers are Treated by the Rebels—The Destitution and Suffering in the South.

Thomas Taft, a sergeant in the 24th New York Volunteers, who was wounded and taken prisoner at Gettysburg and has but recently been released from prison in Richmond, furnishes an interesting account of his experience while in captivity, from which we extract the following, using his own language:

THE MARCH TO RICHMOND.

"We left the field of Gettysburg on the 4th of July, starting on foot for Staunton, two hundred miles distant. We reached Williamsport on the Potomac, on the 5th of July. Here we had an opportunity of seeing the means employed by the enemy in bringing across supplies to their army. The only thing they had to cross with was an old ferry boat that was forced across the river by the current. This boat would carry about sixty men at a time. They were all one day and nearly all night taking us over—about three thousand in number. The rebels had laid a pontoon bridge across the river two or three miles below Williamsport, but our cavalry had destroyed it a few days before we reached the river. Between Hagerstown and Williamsport we passed over ground that but a few hours before had been the scene of a bloody engagement between Stuart's cavalry and a small force of our cavalry under Kilpatrick. The 5th New York were in this engagement. The dead men and horses were still lying on the field where they fell; all the officers and nearly all the privates had been stripped of their clothing by the rebels, and then left unburied.

HOW THE PRISONERS WERE FED.

"When we reached the river we had marched over forty miles, and in going that distance our captors had given us one pint of flour, half pound of fresh meat, and a little salt. We mixed the flour on a piece of a barrel head and baked on a flat stone in front of the fire.

A PATRIOTIC TOWN.

"The next day after crossing the river we marched fifteen miles, passing through Martinsburg, which is, without exception, the most patriotic place I ever saw; Philadelphia is nothing when compared with it. The people told us to keep up good courage, for the Stars and Stripes were coming and not be long. I was surprised to hear this from people living in Virginia. There was a whole brigade of rebels encamped in and around the town at the time, and by their showing us sympathy, the people were not only endangering their property but their very lives. The ladies had cut and buttered whole baskets of bread, and had set them along the sidewalk to be handed out as we passed.

"Before we reached the town the guards had received orders to bayonet the first man who stepped out of the ranks to get anything from the citizens, and the cavalry guard who were outside of the infantry were ordered to shoot down any citizens who attempted to give us anything to eat. In spite of this, there were two or three cases where young ladies walked right between the cavalry guard (who had their sabres drawn ready to strike) and gave prisoners bread. There was man enough left in the ragamuffins not to strike a woman.

ARRIVE AT STAUNTON.

"From the time we crossed the river it was three day before they gave us anything to eat again. The second day after we left Martinsburg we arrived at Winchester, thirty-four miles from the Potomac, where we halted for one day. Here they gave us one quart of flour and a half pound of fresh beef for two days. The next day we started for Staunton, ninety-two miles distant, which we reached in five days, arriving there on the 18th of July.

THEIR TREATMENT AND SUFFERING.

"We were then taken two miles south of the town, where we were marched in single file up to a pair of bars; here we found two officers, surrounded by guards, to search us; they took all arms, large knives, tents, rubber, blankets and canteens, then turned us into the field like a lot of cattle. Here we were exposed to a Virginia aud, for there was but one small tree in the field of about two acres. For five successive days we had a heavy shower in the afternoon; each time I was wet to the skin, and had to remain so until the sun rose the next morning and dried my wet clothes The nights were so cold that we could not sleep on the wet ground without blankets, so we were obliged to walk all night to keep warm. They gave us one pint of flour and a piece of bacon about one and a half inches square, all covered with vermin which, with a little salt, constituted our daily rations. We suffered in this manner till the fourth of August, when they searched us for greenbacks, and took all the money they could find about us. Then we were shipped for Richmond on some dirt cart, with an old cattle box of an engine to haul us.

IN PRISON AT RICHMOND.

"We arrived at Richmond on the morning of August 5th; we were marched through the city to the tobacco warehouse, where we were stowed away, about three hundred men on a floor, with four small windows at each end to let in the light and air, and were kindly told by the guard that the first man who put his head out of the window would be shot.—We were kept here two days and a night, when we were taken to Bell Isle, about half a mile from the city.—Here they had an earthwork thrown up, about as large as that formed by a rifle pit; this enclosed about an acre and a half, and in this small place they had over four thousand prisoners. They had tents for about three thousand; the remainder had to lie on the ground between the tents. Here, at ten o'clock, A. M., they gave us a quarter of a loaf of bread; the loaves weighing twenty ounces. This gave each man five ounces of bread. Then they gave fifteen pounds of meat, bones and all, for one hundred men; this, when divided, gave each man about two ounces of meat, making in all seven ounces. This was our breakfast and dinner together. At four o'clock, P. M., we received five ounces more of bread, and one pint of soup, beans and rice alternately.—The best that I ever had of either did not have in it three spoonfuls of rice, or beans, and the soup was so thin that if you blew the scum from the top you could see the beans or rice at the bottom.

"It was no uncommon sight to see two men holding up a comrade, he being too weak to walk alone. A number died while I was there. Some of the men would pick up the bones that lay in the streets, pound them up with a stone, and then suck the pieces to get what little nourishment there was left in them.

THE DELIVERANCE.

"We remained here till the 28th of August when we were taken in to Richmond and placed in the tobacco houses again, where we remained until morning, when we were put in the cars for City Point, which we reached at twelve o'clock. Here we saw the transport New York lying at the dock, with the Stars and Stripes floating at her mast head, causing the boys to shout for joy. As soon as we were taken on board we all received a half-loaf of bread and a piece of boiled pork; the most of them ate this at once, being too hungry to wait and eat a little at a time.

PRICES IN RICHMOND.

"The rebel soldiers have no faith whatever in their Government; they told us that their pay was not worth the snap of their finger, and they would give eight dollars of their money for one of ours. A pair of boots in Richmond are worth from forty-five to fifty dollars; shoes from fifteen to twenty dollars; a pound of coffee, half, rye, five dollars; sugar, three dollars; a pair of coarse pantaloons, forty dollars; and everything else in proportion. They have "bread riots" nearly every day; robberies and murders are committed almost every night and you can see armed men stationed at the corner of every street, and all over the city to keep the peace."

A Brave Man's Answer.

Gen. Butler, stopping over night in New Hampshire, on his way to the White Mountains, was now and then interrupted by Copperheads. He said:—

"In two years we have seen three quarters of a million of men raised."

"Some of them," replied General Butler, with his customary promptness, "lie sleeping beneath the sod; and others are still fighting the battles of their country, while you remain here at home aiding the cause of traitors."

In another portion of his speech, Gen. Butler said:

"Will you volunteer?"

A voice replied, "No."

"You voted for Breckinridge," said a voice to General Butler, alluding to the last Democratic National Convention.

"Yes," said Butler, "and if I were so cowardly as you I might be tempted to deny it."

He then went on to show these New Hampshire partisans that one might vote for a man under certain circumstances and oppose that man under certain other circumstances. When Judas Iscariot was a true follower of his Master, he was no doubt a worthy example to be followed; but he was not aware that a man, to preserve his consistency, must continue to follow Judas after he betrayed his Lord.

WELL ANSWERED.—The Nashville Union, replying to a contemptuous remark of a Copperhead paper that "Sambo is getting to be of great importance, in these latter days," says: "The negro has been of importance for more than a generation. He has enabled a few aristocrats to rule the nation. He has given the Cotton States all their importance. He has caused one foreign and one civil war already, and he has become at last the chief corner stone of the Southern Confederacy. Who will deny 'Sambo's' importance?"

The Pennsylvania Soldiers in Convalescent Camp, to their Friends at Home, Send Greeting!

FRIENDS:—About one year ago the soil of our State was invaded by a desperate, wicked and heartless foe.—Our very homes were polluted by the low trash and dirty scum of the southern army; our villages destroyed, our beautiful fields laid waste, our citizens robbed, and a desperate effort made to capture and destroy the capital of our dear old commonwealth. You remember the misgivings and tears which the loyal portion of our people entertained as to the results of that invasion, which not only threatened our property, but even the life of the nation. The most sanguine patriot had almost lost hope, and it was only through the determined and irresistable bravery of your friends, who, in response to the call of the government, flew to arms, that your whole State was saved from being overrun by the horses of dirty rebels, and the final overthrow of this government was averted. Have you any gratitude for the services rendered you by the army? If so, you have an opportunity to make it known to the world.—You said we gained a great victory when we drove the rebels out of the Old Keystone State; and so it was; but you have it in your power to achieve a victory as great in its results, and, thank God, without the sacrifices which our victory cost us.

On the 13th of October there will be a contest in Pennsylvania which may decide the fate of liberty, law, order and a constitutional government throughout the world. In this contest there are but two parties, as there were but two at Gettysburg.—One party is for sustaining President Lincoln in putting down the rebellion, and to this end has from the beginning encouraged men to fly to arms; it has voted to pay liberally those men who did take up arms, as well as provide for their families while in the army.—Their aim has uniformly been to whip the rebels, and sacrifice everything to save the Union. The champions of this party are Lincoln, Stanton, Butler, Johnson of Tennessee, Holt of Kentucky, Hamilton of Texas, Dickinson, Curtin, and host of good patriots who hold the safety of the Union paramount to everything else. Their motto is, "Let the Union live, though slavery should perish."

On the other hand is a party which has steadily opposed the replenishing our ranks, and have thrown every obstacle in the way of providing for our wants while fighting for our country. When we were victorious, these men never rejoiced; when we were defeated, they never mourned. We never had their sympathies; the rebels never had their enmity. They have continually cursed every man who supported President Lincoln in suppressing the rebellion; but we defy you to show us when or where they said one kind word against the rebels. This party is supported by Jeff. Davis, Beauregard, Lee, Bragg, Floyd, John Morgan, and others in the south, and by Judge Woodward, Vallandigham, Seymour, and the Woods in the north.—Their motto is "Slavery must live, though the Union should perish."

In Pennsylvania the two parties are led by A. G. Curtin and George W. Woodward, and it is for you to choose under what banner you will be found fighting; but before you make choice it may be well to examine the claims of the leaders.

Who is Judge Woodward, who are his associates, and what are his principles?

First. George W. Woodward is a Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania who decided against giving us, who are fighting for your liberties, a right to vote. He is one of the most arrant aristocrats in Pennsylvania, and has no more feeling in common with the laboring man than a wolf has with a sheep.

Second. Whenever you find a man who desires the success of the rebel army, and who in Congress or the State Legislature voted against all means to put down the rebellion, you will find him a loud-mouthed brawler for Woodward; and wherever you find a newspaper which has only been consistent in its treasonable effusions, you will find it advocating his claims. Wm. B. Reed, F. W. Hughes, Ancona, and that class of men, are his fuglemen, and the Richmond Enquirer, Charleston Mercury, World and Daily News of New York, and Patriot and Union, his special organs.

Third. His principles are to throw every obstacle in the way of the national Administration, in putting an end to the struggle which is now distracting our country, and by all means in his power to aid the rebels in achieving their hellish ends.

Do you ask who is A. G. Curtin? We will answer by saying he is the true, fearless and faithful patriot, who has done more towards saving this government than any other man in the country. He was the first to send troops to Washington after Ft. Sumter had surrendered. By his forecast in organizing the Pennsylvania Reserves he saved Washington from capture and our army from demoralization after the first battle of Bull Run; and by calling out the Pennsylvania Militia in September, 1862, he again rescued the army from destruction, with his thrilling appeals to our citizens in July, and thereby aided greatly in once more repelling Lee and his vandals. He has administered the affairs of our State during the most important crisis through which any commonwealth has ever passed, and who can truly say he did not do it well?

He is the friend of its defenders. We know him to be the friend of the soldier. He always remembers us, and it is a comfortable thought, when we suffer from scorching fever, contracted in pestiferous swamps, when fainting in the trenches, undergoing hard and fatiguing marches, or bleeding on the field of carnage, that we have a Governor who feels for us, pities us and provides for us, while his friends and supporters never cease administering to our wants. Reader, have you son, brother or friend in the army? If so, that one can tell you how it would grieve him if you cast your vote against Gov. Curtin.

We have now presented the case before you, and if you think our services in the army have been worth anything, we ask you but this once to reciprocate. The victory at Gettysburg amounts to nothing if you elect a man Governor of Pennsylvania who sympathises with the rebels. Give us a victory at the next election by reelecting Andrew G Curtin, and the army will soon finish the shinplaster confederacy.

We ask you in the names of our comrades who have fallen victims to this infernal rebellion; we ask it in the name of such as are still suffering in the hospitals; we ask it in the name of those who are wasting their lives in rebel prisons; we ask it in the name of liberty, the Constitution, and the Union, to go to the polls and vote for A. G. Curtin, the man who never failed us. We leave the matter with you, reminding you that on your shoulders rest responsibilities for which posterity will hold you accountable.

(Signed by about 500 soldiers.)

The names of Ward 31 were all written by their Ward Master, each man coming in person and stating his preference for Curtin. Only one man was for Woodward.

A RAILROAD WORKMAN ASKING FOR A PASS.—The Buffalo Courier tells the following story which is very good but rather old—having gone the rounds of the papers some years since:

A good story is told of a prominent railroad gentleman of this city, who is equally renowned for his ability to make and take a joke. A railroad employee, whose home is in Avon, came one Saturday night to ask for a pass down to visit his family.

"You are in the employ of the railroad?" inquired the gentleman addressed to.

"Yes."

"You receive your pay regularly?"

"Yes."

"Well. Now suppose you were working for a farmer, instead of a railroad company, would you expect your employer to hitch up his team every Saturday night and carry you home?"

This seemed to be poser, but it wasn't.

"No," said the man promptly, "I would not expect that; but if the farmer had his team hitched up, and was going my way, I should call him a darned mean cuss if he wouldn't let me ride."

Mr. Employee came out three minutes afterwards with a pass in his sock good for twelve months.

Is This True?

The Huntingdon Globe, a reliable Democratic journal, too loyal to support Woodward for Governor, and sufficiently independent to cast its influence for Curtin, makes the following startling statement:

Judge Woodward has had a loyal son in the army. When this son was brought home, to his father's house in Philadelphia, badly wounded in one leg, and while he was receiving the kind attention of members of the family and neighbors, the Judge made his appearance at the bed room door of the sufferer, and raising his hands, he saluted his son with the following language:

"It is a pity you were not shot in both arms and the other leg, for fighting in this unholy war."

This father traitor is now asking Union men to vote for him for Governor. The soldier or soldier's friend who can vote for him should be kicked out of all loyal society.

INFLUENCE OF MOTHERS.—Mr. Randolph never ceased till his dying day, to remember, with unutterable affection, the pious care of his mother, in teaching him to kneel at her side, and with his little hands pressed together and turned upward, to repeat in slow and measured accents the pattern prayer.

"My mother," said Mr. Benton, "before she died, asked me not to drink liquor, and I never did. She desired me at another time to avoid gaming, and I never knew a card. She hoped I never would use tobacco, and it never passed my lips."

☞ At a printer's festival the following toast was given: "The Editor and the Lawyer—the devil is satisfied with the copy of the former, but requires the original of the latter.

Send in the Election Returns.

Our friends in the country districts must not fail to send to the Union Head-Quarters at Kerr's Hotel, Beaver, the return of every township as soon as counted off. We want to send the news eastward by midnight of the 13th, that Beaver county gives a thousand majority for the Union ticket!

U. S. Deputy Marshals.

The Deputy Marshals, appointed by the undersigned, will take notice that the War Department requires that their accounts must show the number of days actually employed, and for whom what duties the services were rendered." The number of names enrolled by each Deputy must also be furnished. Deputies will attend to this as soon as possible, and their pay will be forthcoming.

A. G. HENRY.

Democratic County Committee-men for Curtin.

We have received the following note, which will explain itself. Upon examination of the list of Democratic Committee-men we notice the names of at least six who will vote for Curtin and Agnew.

FALLSTON, Oct. 6, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—I am told that my name is upon the list of the Democratic Committee of Correspondence published in the Star. If so it is issued without my consent. I am for Curtin, Agnew and the Union, and have no sympathy for traitors, South or North.

J. GODARD.

DEMOCRATS, LOOK AT THIS!

Are you in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the suppression of the rebellion?

Are you in favor of furnishing the President with funds sufficient to arm, equip, pay, clothe and subsist our armies and navies engaged in its suppression?

Are you in favor of the amendment to the constitution of Pennsylvania giving soldiers the right of suffrage?

We would be glad to have answers to these questions that we may understand the present position of our cotemporary.

—The above questions we have proposed to the editor of the Star, in five successive issues of the Argus. The answers would rise at once to the lips of a loyal man; yet the Star replies only by personal abuse. Its silence will bear but one construction. Loyal Democrats of Beaver county, do you understand that the guilty clique which has usurped the control of your party holds—

1. That the rebellion should not be suppressed.

2. That the President should not be supplied with funds for the support of the army and navy of the Union.

3. That your kindred, now fighting the battles of the country, should not be allowed the right of suffrage.

If so, can you support the ticket they have placed in nomination?

NEARLY ALL THE SOLDIERS FOR CURTIN.—A vote in the 140th Reg. P. V. for Governor resulted as follows.

Curtin	248

Great and Enthusiastic Union Meeting at New Brighton, on the 3d of October, to Hear the Hon. Thomas Cunningham.

A great and unprecedented meeting was held on last Saturday at New Brighton, to hear Judge Cunningham, of Beaver, for many years an active powerful and influential leader of the Democratic party in Western Pennsylvania, proclaim to the people his determination to stand by and support the Government of his country against the treason of armed rebels in the South and the infernal machinations of their sympathizers and co-conspirators in the North.

Although the people had but only about two days notice of this meeting, yet so strong was their anxiety to hear this distinguished and eloquent Democratic leader, that at least THREE THOUSAND persons from the surrounding country attended.

About 12 o'clock the delegation from Beaver about 500 strong with a superb brass band, headed by Wm. B. Clarke as Marshal, formed at the Court House, and marched to New Brighton, where they were received by a procession of citizens with a band of music, and those beautiful young ladies representing the States of the Union, and escorted to the ground at the north end of the town.

At nearly 2 o'clock the meeting was organized by the appointment of Wm. Henry, Esq., as President, with a large number of highly respectable gentlemen as Vice Presidents, and T. M. M'Cord and A. G. M'Creary, Esqs., as Secretaries. The President then arose and after making a few appropriate remarks, introduced the Hon. Thos. Cunningham, who proceeded to address the assembled multitude. No one who was present, can ever forget its effect upon the mass of human beings. For an hour and three quarters he continued to discuss with signal ability and power the great questions which now agitate the people of this country, leaving no doubt in the mind of any one as to his sound orthodoxy and devoted patriotism. He defined his position as a true and consistent democrat of the school of Andrew Jackson, but contended that in this great National crisis, it was the duty of every man, of whatever party heretofore, to lay aside all party considerations, and do all in his power to save his country from destruction at the hands of rebels who without cause have brought on this unholy and unprovoked war. He abused no man for differing with him, but presented such an array of facts, and sound and overwhelming argument, as to convince many who have been heretofore carried away by their party prejudices. His solemn and eloquent appeals to his old political friends around him, and every American citizen to rally for the support of the Government, in its time of trial and peril, and to aid in the preservation of our glorious republican institutions as handed down to us by our forefathers, awakened the most enthusiastic feeling.

But when the Judge spoke in clear, firm and manly tones of the position of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania,—the one, George W. Woodward calling himself a Democrat but whose opinion, expressed, to the Judge in conversation, that our armies should be withdrawn to the North of Mason and Dixon's line and our blockade of the Southern ports be raised and that then our government should hold out terms of compromise to the rebels,—but upon the other side, Andrew G. Curtin, the firm and decided patriot, the talented and upright man, who by three years untiring and energetic support of the government, and of the cause of outraged humanity it was evident that a deep and most salutary impression was made upon his audience.

His vindication of the State and National Governments was complete and unanswerable, and never did any audience give more profound attention or warmer approval of a speaker, than the respectable and intelligent audience present on that occasion.—All appeared alive to the importance of the great issues involved in the contest. We refer our readers to the speech of Judge Cunningham at New Brighton, in the accompanying sheet, which was reported by a reporter present. Read it, fellow citizens, that you may see what is your duty, and that your patriotism may be fully aroused.

After Judge Cunningham had closed, Hon. John Allison entertained the audience for half an hour with strong and convincing argument in favor of the Union cause and the candidates of the Union party.

This great and glorious assemblage of freemen then adjourned, to meet at the polls on Tuesday next to carry out the great principles there enunciated.

☞ Hon. Thos. Cunningham will address a Union Meeting at Phillipsburg, Monday, 12th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M. Let there be a full turn out.

The Decisive Hour at Hand.

Every man who loves his country, who loves the cause of man freedom and hates tyranny and despotism, must now be awake to the important fact that the time has now arrived when it is their duty to devote themselves to ceaseless and most industrious exertions to secure the election of true, firm and well-tried loyal men at the next election in Pennsylvania. This cannot be done without prompt, decisive and vigorous action by every true loyal man throughout the country. We see, everywhere, that the opponents of the government, the sympathizers with Southern traitors are active, vigilant and industrious in support of their unholy cause.—They are led on by unprincipled and bad men, aided by a mercenary press, proclaiming, with unblushing impudence the barefaced falsehoods to deceive, if possible, the honest but unthinking masses. Such foes, mean and contemptible as their leaders are, must not be underrated. The people of Pennsylvania were surprised at the result of the last election, because it exhibited an organization of friends of Rebellionn so strong as to be able to command a victory. Their triumph was produced by organization and great industry. Their organization is complete, their party drill is unequalled. No matter what discontent may prevail in their ranks, or what opinion they adopt, their men always stand ready to support that ticket through thick and thin. This organization the friends of the Union have to contend against. We owe it to ourselves, and to our country, to redeem the State from the hands of such men as are endeavoring to chain her to the chariot wheels of Southern Slave-holding Rebellion, and make her once more a willing and obedient slave to Southern masters.

We hope to see where Union men are in the minority, that loyal men will endeavor to diminish the Democratic majority, and in the counties, such as our own, where our majorities are certain, we hope to see every man make every effort in his power to increase the majority and when the result throughout the State is shown the victory will be found to be so great as to have a powerful influence not only in the loyal States, but in the States in rebellion against the Union, and forever crush out the spirit of treason, which now dares to show its deformed and horrid head amongst us. This alone will bring about a lasting peace, and restore the Union to its former power and prosperity.

Freemen, we call upon you never to loose sight of the important fact that every vote given for Andrew G. Curtin will assist in restoring peace to the country, because rebels and traitors will be convinced that loyal men have roused themselves to a firm and fixed determination that the rebellion shall be crushed.

The people of the South went into the rebellion under the belief that the people of the North were unwilling and incapable of resistance to their unholy conspiracy, and now under the belief that a large mass of our people are still in sympathy with slavery and treason the rebellion is still raged with hope of success. Of this they are assured by northern demagogues who are in constant correspondence with them. Let us then make one mighty and united effort to convince the people of the South that their hope is entirely groundless, and defeat northern allies of slavery and rebellion at the fall on the 2d Tuesday of October. This can only be done by electing Andrew G. Curtin, the friend and supporter of the government.

If the friends of the Union fail to do their whole duty, our country is in danger of being overthrown by foes within and enemies abroad. Freemen, arouse and save your government.—One more effort and you will be safe.

☞ Capt. J. S. Winans, of Co. H, 9th Reg. P. R. C., has sent us the vote of his company for Governor, which resulted as follows:

Curtin	48
Woodward	00

A similar vote was taken in the regiment, with the following result:

Curtin	350
Woodward	00

"We are," says the Captain in his letter, "debarred the privilege of a voice in the coming election, and take this method of expressing our preference, hoping that it will serve to convince our friends at home that the copperhead candidate has no sympathy in the army, in this part at least."

☞ WILL the people along the line of the Rail Roads recollect that Woodward and Lowrie decided that the companies were not bound to fence their Roads; and that the owner of the cattle, killed by the locomotive, could not recover damage for the property destroyed, but were liable themselves for damages done on account of their cattle being on the track. This decision was made against law and common sense. Will you vote for such men?

Freemen of Beaver County.

Do you wish to aid and support the best Government the world ever saw? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to uphold our glorious country in her present struggle? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to rebuke the disloyal cowards who are striving to overthrow our Government? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to administer a reproof to the spirit of disloyalty now running ripe at the North? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to dash down the hopes of the leaders of the rebellion? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to lend your aid at the most opportune time for striking a blow to copperheads that will make all rebeldom reel? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to partake in the glory which Grant and Banks have acquired? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to assist the work which Meade inaugurated at Gettysburg? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to assist grand old Rosecrans, in his terrible struggle in Georgia? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to inspire those brave men who under the lead of Gilmore and Dahlgren, are operating in front of Charleston? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to aid and assist our brave boys who are now baring their bosoms to the bayonet in defense of our free institutions? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to strike terror into the hearts of the despots of the Old World? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to make the British Lion crouch in terror at the feet of American Eagle? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to make Louis Napoleon the most polite and accommodating of Frenchmen? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to extinguish the last hope of the Rebellion? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew.

Do you wish to end this cruel war? Then vote for Curtin and Agnew;—And we beg of you to Recollect that this rebellion is now on its last legs, and the defeat of copperheadism in this State, will go a great ways to finish the rebellion.

Recollect, That Walter H. Lowrie is an aristocrat in favor of Jeff. Davis, and the rebellion and opposed to our Government, and he is now doing all he can to thwart the efforts making for the suppression of rebels.

Recollect, That the potent voice of of the old Keystone State, in conjunction with her younger sister, the Buckeye State, will be uttered on the Second Tuesday of October, and that all ears are waiting for that decision, all the world is looking. The friends of human progress are hoping to hear the decision of the people, on the side of freedom. Those who hate Union progress are expecting to have a decision in favor of slavery?

Recollect, That upon that utterance depend issues more mighty than ever depended upon the acts of any of the great Empires of the Old World.

Remember, That as that decison is rendered upon that day by those great States, will go forth the opinion to the whole world, either that all is lost, or that every thing has been gained.

Remember these things, and with a solemn conviction, of the fact that greater or more momentous issues were never in the history of this world submitted to your consideration, go to the polls and deposit your ballots for Curtin and Agnew.

Vote for these men and you will be thus enabled to confer a lasting benefit upon your country.

Vote for them, and you can enjoy a proud consciousness of having performed your duty.

Vote for them, and you can then rest in the assurance that the blessings of posterity will be awarded you.

Vote for them, and you will soon see the end of this most mischievous and accursed rebellion.

Vote for them, and you will set the miserable horde of cowardly traitors who are secretly in league with Jeff. Davis and his crew to howling over their defeat.

Vote for them and all will be well.

Vote for the whole Loyal Union Ticket.

Fresh Oysters.

Peter Angel, of Bridgewater, calls the attention of his friends and customers—and those who desire a nice dish of Oysters, to the fact that he is receiving, daily Maltby's Oysters, the best Oysters known. He will also sell by can or half can.

A Dreadful National Calamity.

The most dreadful calamity that could befall the nation would be the election of Woodward to the office of Governor of Pennsylvania. The rebels in arms for the destruction of our Government, are waiting with intense anxiety for the result of the election in this State and Ohio, aye the enemies of the free government in Europe are looking with strong hope for the success of the candidates of the rebel sympathizers in the north and the moment it is ascertained that Woodward and Vallandigham are elected, the government set up in the South will be acknowledged by France and England.

Let us briefly review some of the opinions of Woodward the Southern candidate for Governor, and see if the freemen of Pennsylvania can consistently, with their honor, their interests or their loyalty to the government support him for their highest office.

In the first place he, as a member of the Convention that amended the Constitution, offered a resolution to amend it by prohibiting all foreigners who might be naturalized after the 4th of July, 1841, from voting or holding office in this State and advocated the same at great length saying that he had long desired to see such a provision as that offered by him. Loyal Irishmen and Germans, are you prepared to vote for a man who would disfranchise you, and say that you must be satisfied with the protection only which is given to the negro and have no greater privelige than he enjoys. Again we find this coldblooded, selfish and austere man as a Judge of the Supreme Court deciding that the soldiers of Pennsylvania who have sacrificed all the comforts and enjoyments of home and nobly gone forth with the armies to do battle against rebels and traitors for the national life, shall not be permitted to vote for our public officers. Yes, freemen this man is now asking you to vote for him. He thinks, whilst your sons and brothers are enduring hardships and perilling their lives to redeem our nation from rebellion, he can be elected by men who like him, sympathize with the traitors who are shedding the blood of your friends, who have been disfranchised by his decision, a decision made by him no doubt with a view to the present case, for he has been long seeking this high position. He knows, and every intelligent man does, that the best and truest loyal Union men are now in the army. Such men as Woodward and his supporters are never found supporting the Union with either voice or hand.

Judge Cunningham, with whom you are acquainted, than whom no truer man lives, in his public speeches, has given to the public a conversation which he had with Judge Woodward in which he said he was in favor of withdrawing our armies to the North of Mason's and Dixon's line and raising the blockade of Southern ports and then offering them terms of compromise.

Thus we see this Judge of the Supreme Court using expressions of disloyalty, which should banish him from the society of the good and wise every where.

It is further stated by Mr. Hart of Philadelphia, a most respectable citizen, that on the way to and from the battle-field of Gettysburg he publicly and unblushingly proclaimed that he was opposed to the war because it was an abolition war and was unconstitutional. He could see no right the government had to maintain a supremacy of the constitution and laws, but could see that the Southern traitors had the constitutional right to trample upon the constitution, and enslave men. He stands upon the same platform with that infamous traitor, Vallandigham, who glories in his treason, of which he now stands convicted, and what hanked God that whilst in Congress he had never voted for a single man to give our armies, or a single dollar for the support of the soldiers or their wives and families.

Freemen of Beaver county, can you vote for such a man, who would betray you and surrender your government into the hands of armed traitors and reduce you and your children to the condition of slaves under a terrible military despotism.

We implore you as you love your country, your homes and the peace and happiness of those you love, and as you are desirous of supporting the great cause of human freedom, vote for Curtin and Agnew, the true and loyal candidates, the friends of the soldiers, the friends of the country, and of all the oppression and suffering everywhere.

If you refuse to vote for them and cast your vote for Woodward and Lowrie, you will upon your dying bed regret that you have contributed to the destruction of the best government on earth.

Go to the polls and vote for Curtin, Agnew and the whole Union ticket—all good true and loyal men.

Mr. Beighley's Reply to the Star

MR. EDITOR:—My attention has been called by my friends to an article in the Star, of last week, headed "JOHN H. BEIGHLEY," which charges me—

1st. With endeavoring to appropriate to my own use a gun sent by Capt. Joseph M. Reed to his father, Eli Reed, by my hand.

2d. With embezzling money sent by Mrs. Mary Holsinger to her sons in the 139th P. V., in my care.

The notorious character of the Star for veracity and the outrageous nature of the charges when considered in connection with the silence maintained concerning them until this late day, render the article impotent for any injury to my election, but I have thought it due to the Union men of Beaver county, who have placed me in nomination, that it should not pass unanswered.

The facts are briefly as follows:

1st. The gun was committed to my care, as stated by Capt. Reed, and brought home by me. Eight days after my return, I came to Beaver upon business. I had forgotten the gun at the moment of starting from my home (ten miles distant) but in Bridgewater met Mr. David Woodruff, who asked me if I had brought with me a gun for Eli Reed, as he had promised to have it brought down for him. I told him I had the gun and would bring it when I next came down. I was in Bridgewater on the following Tuesday, when I brought the rifle with me and handed it to Mr. Woodruff. This is the history in brief of the attempted appropriation of the gun, and I never dreamed that any intention to keep it was attributed to me until I saw the hysterics of the Star last week. In relation to this I append the affidavit of Mr. Woodruff, a gentleman whose character even the Star will not venture to impugn.

2d. Just before I left for the army of the Potomac, in October, 1862, (Mrs. Holsinger's affidavit says, the news of my sons illness, which caused her to send him the money, came in November.) I met this Mary Holsinger, and at her request, took charge of two letters for her sons, and a package of letter paper, envelopes, one of tobacco. She also gave me a dollar to buy more tobacco, which I did as I passed through Pittsburg, and tied the letters, paper, tobacco for the Holsinger boys in a single bundle.—After my arrival in camp, my trunk having been broken open upon the passage, the bundle was abstracted from it, and I so told the boys, and that though not legally bound to do it, I would pay them its value, whatever it might be. Nothing was then said by them, and nothing was said by Mrs. Holsinger, at the time of the delivery of the letters, of their contents being valuable, and I had no other letters in my custody for the 139th regiment. Some weeks after my return, Mrs. Holsinger sent to me demanding the value of the goods sent in my care, and claiming that eight dollars were enclosed in the letters. Her circumstances, and the facts attending the matter were such that I know this to be false, and, refused to pay, unless she made her affidavit that such was the fact. This she did before Henry Bryan, Esq., and I paid her the money, protesting at the same time that she had never sent a dollar in the letters as Squire Bryan will remember. Mrs. Holsinger's character, at home, and in our Courts, is so well known that this will be understood by her acquaintances. She herself stated to Mrs. Hendrickson, wife of Col. Moses Hendrickson, that she had sent no money to her boys by me, and I append Mrs. Hendrickson's affidavit to that effect.

I went to the army to see my two sons, who have long been in the service, one of them since the breaking out of the rebellion, and I do not know that there was anything criminal in endeavoring to make my expenses by selling such wares as I could sell to advantage, though the Star thinks differently. Nor do I believe that the people of Beaver county will consider it a crime as the Star does that I am not rolling in wealth, as my opponent Geo. C. Minis is, who is the father of the most base, malicious, and unwarranted attempt to destroy my reputation. If wealth is a qualification for office, I frankly confess myself disqualified, and I have never represented my circumstances as other than moderate. The Star also charges that I was guilty of profane swearing on the day of the last election.—There was a difficulty arose out of an attempted copperhead outrage at the polls, in the course of which I became much excited. The copperheads say I swore some; perhaps I did. If I did so, I can but acknowledge the fault, and add, the conduct of the traitorous crew who gathered against me that day, was enough to have provoked an oath from a saint.

This, Mr. Editor, is all I have to say upon the article in the Star. It is of a piece with the reckless mendacity which has long characterized that sheet. Rarely does an election occur, that is not ushered in by some such malignant and false attacks upon the character of some of our candidates, at a date so late that a reply is deemed impossible. They have failed of their effects heretofore, and I think will fail again. I am ready to abide by the decision of the people, and will adjourn this discussion with Mr. Minis to the polls.

JOHN H. BEIGHLY.

BEAVER COUNTY ss:

SEAL. Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said county, David Woodruff, who after being duly sworn according to law, saith that about a week or eight days after John H. Beighley came home from the army, Eli Reed came to me on his way to see said Beighley. I told him I would see Beighley and get the gun for him. I saw Beighley the next Tuesday and asked him if he fetched a gun for said Reed. Beighley told me he did. I made a demand for it for Reed, and on the next week J. H. Beighley fetched the gun to me and I delivered it to Eli Reed. Further saith not.

SEAL. Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace in and for said county, Hannah Hendrickson, who, after being duly sworn according to law, saith that Mary Holsinger came to me on the day, or the day after she said she gave John H. I asked her, Mrs. Holsinger, if she had sent any money, and she answered and said "no, indeed." I made answer and said I would not know who to send a three cent piece with; and further saith not.

HANNAH HENDRICKSON.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 5th day of October, 1863.

THOS. G. KERR, J. P.

BEAVER, Oct. 6, 1863.

MR. ELI REED: Dear Sir—The Star of last says that you applied to Mr. Beighley for a gun sent by your son Joseph, to you by his hand, and that he denied having it in his possession, stating that it had been taken from him by the authorities at Baltimore; also, that he kept it until Joseph returned, who demanded and obtained it. Are these statements true?

D. L. IMBRIE.

MR. IMBRIE.—The statements are not true. I never asked Mr. Beighly for the gun. Mr. Woodruff, of Bridgewater, when I was about to go after it, told me he would see Beighly and get it for me, and save me a walk to Beighly's house in Economy township. He did this and I got the gun from Woodruff. It was delivered to me before Joseph returned.

ELI REED.

DRUNK.—It is asserted by eye witnesses of the fact, that when Governor Curtin left Rochester on Friday evening, after the Republican meeting, he was so drunk as to be unable to get into the car without the assistance of two men. This is the candidate of the virtuous, respectable, moral and intelligent Republican party! We believe Curtin left Beaver about as sober as is usual with him, but as he had to wait nearly two hours in Rochester before the starting of the train, he improved the time by getting drunk clear through. Poor Curtin! no wonder that he seeks in intoxication a refuge from the upbraiding of conscience and the memory of his deeds of corruption.

We publish the above extract from the Star of last week, simply to show our readers to what shifts the Secession Democracy are driven in their desperation. It is a base and malicious falsehood has a thousand witnesses can testify, and we charge that it was concocted by Mr. Long. If not, let us have the names of the "reliable" liars who furnished the item.

—Since the above was in type, Mr. Odle S. Long has been arrested and held to bail for the libel referred to. He will find, we imagine, that he has paid pretty dearly for his whistle before he is done with it.

A Word to the Soldiers.

When Gov. Curtin pledged himself to bring to the polls as many of the soldiers a Democratic Supreme Court had disfranchised as possible, he meant what he said. As the result, we have quite a sprinkling of the blue jackets amongst us. To these we say, let no threat or argument deter you from voting upon election day. You were sent home without inquiring as to your politics. If you believe that the election of George W. Woodward is for the benefit of yourselves and the cause you are fighting for, then vote for him; if not, vote for Andrew G. Curtin, who has proved himself true to the Government and to you. But vote at all events. The Democracy are quoting the clause of the constitution, providing that no military force shall be present at the polls to prevent you from voting, and in some districts of this county, they threaten to prevent you by force. The constitution which only intended that no armed force should be present to overawe voters, in the exercise of the right of suffrage does not apply to your case, and if force is used, repel it by force. Do your duty at home as you have done it in the field, and all will be well for you and for the country.

A Mistake.

We observed in the last issue of the New Brighton Times, an editorial article, stating that Judge Woodward had denied the statement of the Hon. Thos. Cunningham, as to the conversation he had with him, in which Woodward said he was in favor of withdrawing our armies and raising the Blockade of the Southern Ports. In this matter the Times was in error. No such denial has been attempted by Judge Woodward, nor will there be any. We are very confident that where Judge Cunningham is known, which is very general throughout the State, no one will dare to deny any statement of facts he will make. His character for veracity, and in every other respect, is far above reproach. He deservedly stands high in the estimation of all—even of his political opponents. Brother Lemon you had better put your spectacles on.

Hooker has been invested with the command of the Eleventh and Twelfth Corps of the Army of the Potomac, and has been directed to report with them immediately at Chattanooga. The public will be rejoiced to learn that this superior soldier is resorted to public service, and will anticipate in consequence, such support for Rosecrans, as will make the western campaign a certain triumph. Supported by two such soldiers as Hooker and Thomas, there will be henceforth, for the army of the Cumberland, no such word as fail."

Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR PAINS AND ACHES, and I warranted superior to any other. Croup it positively cures; relief is absolutely sure immediately it is used. Mothers remember this, and arm yourselves with a bottle without delay. Croup is disease which gives no notice, frequently attacking the child in the dead hour of night; before a physician can be summoned it may be too late. Remember, the Venetian Liniment never fails. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New-York.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing certain Amendments

TO THE CONSTITUTION

BE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

Sec. 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election.

There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:

Sec. 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

Sec. 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth. JOHN CESSNA,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

Notice is Hereby Given,

That every person except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall have been employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Inspector, Judge, or Clerk of any election of the Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or any other officer of such election, shall be eligible to any to be then voted for.

Also, in and by the fourth section of an Act approved the 15th of April, 1840, it is enacted that the 13th section of the act passed July 2d, 1839, entitled an act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth, shall not be construed so as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from service as Judge, Inspector or Clerk at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2d, 1839, provides as follows:

That the Judge and Inspectors chosen as aforesaid, shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the districts to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock on the morning of the Second Tuesday of October in each and every year, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of said district.

In case the persons who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend on the day of an election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as Inspector in his place; and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the present elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the Board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of Assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judges when called on, in relation to the rights of any persons assessed by them to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or Judge, or either of them shall from me to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County Tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months: Provided, that the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and having resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they have not paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless, first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a State or county tax, assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation or of another, that he has paid such tax, or on failing to procure a receipt, shall make oath of the payment thereof; or second, if he claims a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of the residence in the district as is required in this act; and that he does verily believe, from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the names of the persons so admitted to vote shall be inserted into the alphabetical list by the Inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted on account of his age, and in either case, the reasons of such votes shall be called out by the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessor, or his right to vote, whether found there or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of Inspector to examine such persons on oath as to qualification, and, if he claims to have resided within the State one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district for the purpose of voting therein.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or overpower any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of his choice; such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than twelve months; and if it shall be shown that by the Court who the trial of such offence shall be had that the person offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offences was committed and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such a bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

If any person not by law qualified shall fraudulently vote at any election within this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified, shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such persons to vote, the person or persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three months.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspectors two tickets together, with the intention to vote illegally, or shall vote the same, or if any person shall advise or procure another to do so, he or they so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens,) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets, or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

The Return Judges of the several districts aforesaid are requested to meet at the Court House, in Beaver, on the first Friday after the second Tuesday of October next, at ten o'clock, a. m., to perform those things required by law.

And by "An Act relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of July, 1839, it is provided and directed as follows:

SEC. 81. When two or more counties shall compose a district for the choice of a member or members of the Senate of this Commonwealth, or of the House of representatives of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, the Judges of the election in each county, having met as aforesaid, the Clerks shall make out a fair statement of all to votes which shall have been given at such election, within the county, for every person voted for, as such member or members, which shall be signed by said Judges and attested by the Clerks, and one of the said Judges shall take charge of such certificate, and shall produce the same at a meeting of one Judge from each county, at such places, in such district, as is or may be appointed by law for the purpose, which meeting shall be held on the seventh day after the election.

SEC. 82. The Judges of the several counties have met, as aforesaid shall cast up the several county returns and made duplicate returns of all the votes given for such office in said district, and of the names of the person or persons elected, and one of said returns, for each office, shall be deposited in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which they shall meet, and the other shall by said Judges be deposited in nearest post office, sealed and directed as in parts two and three of the eighteenth section of this act.

SEC. 83. It shall also be the duty of the Return Judges in every case, to transmit to each of the persons elected to serve in congress, or in the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, a certificate of his election, within five days after the day of making up such return.

The Return Judges of the Representative District composed of the counties of Beaver and Lawrence will meet at the Court House in Beaver, according to the 81st section above cited.

Given under my hand at Beaver, (SEAL) the 1st day of September, 1863, and of the Independence of the United States the Eighty-eighth.

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law; Mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar. No classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal;

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their Branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved systems.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully-made-up form in which it appears, a corrected, mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $25,00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2,50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

☞ No order will receive attention unless accompanied with the cash.

☞ Specimen numbers sent to applicants.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made officinal in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Compound Extract of Colocynth,
Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,
Citrate of Iron and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,
Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable; chalybeates,
Syrup of the Hypophosphites,
Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,
Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,
Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,
Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia: same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects.
Pyro-phosphate of Iron: soluble.

These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed, and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wanted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well-ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared to or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restured; the nature treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address, Dr. Wm. YOUNG, 416 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ Afflicted and Unfortunate, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office, 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

NOW.

USE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS.

The best evidence that they are the best, is the firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd, an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, these preparations have been used in his extensive practice for years, and no leading Dentist of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of secret nostrums, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectation with his MOUTH WASH AND TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success is, no doubt, with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I have found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, per bill."

But their cost is so small that every one can test the matter for himself.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

"Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest complexion—a sweet breath and pearly teeth—to gentlemen, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will render the breakfast taste sweeter and the cigar more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons testify to this. Try them, reader.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the best preparations in use for curing bad breath and giving firmness to health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's mouth wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to countenance, make husbands more agreeable to wives, and wives to their husbands. They are used by every person having

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure the most acute ache arising from exposed nerves, and his best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from needless suffering, and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot afford to neglect your teeth. For a tr
